

Richard Feynman is one of the people I admire and I would have wished to be able to meet and talk.

I found that I share most of his views on the ways the minds of all of us perceive reality and nature.

I would highly recommend watching this biographic video.

I'm about to start publishing some ideas and models about nature and universe and I believe that Mr. Feynman will help me in this endeavour as he helped so many others.

Thank you Richard Feynman!
